Club Restaurant at McInnis Park, 350 Smith Ranch Road, San Rafael, CA 11:30 am – 1:00 pm

Speaker: Elizabeth Saalwaechter, San Joaquin Human Trafficking Task Force

Topic: Marin Has Its Own ‘Epstein’ Problem – Human Trafficking is Slavery

Human trafficking is rampant in Marin County according to the Marin County Civil Grand Jury Report 2016.

Our speaker, Elizabeth Saalwaechter, is a Republican and retired educator who became involved with community issues and needs thirteen years ago. One issue close to her heart has been the McHenry House Family Shelter where she specializes in fund raising. She joined the Tracy Woman’s Club in 2012 and has held various board positions. During her tenure as the chairman of the Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Committee, she worked with the Tracy School District in implementing their district-wide Anti-Bullying Program and developed a Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Program. She is presently working with the Tracy West Valley Mall Security, Tracy Police Department, and San Joaquin Human Trafficking Task Force on Human Trafficking and Awareness and Prevention.

Elizabeth was born and raised in the Bay Area. She has been married for 39 years, has one son, and makes her home in Tracy, California. She earned a teaching credential from San Francisco State University and did graduate work at Cal State East Bay University. She received the Dublin School District Recognition Award, the Mason-McDuffie Education Foundation Award, the Alameda County School Administrators Amador Valley Charter “Teacher of the Year” Award, and was selected for Who’s Who Among America’s Teachers.

Join us. Get your questions answered about this stunning and rampant issue in our community. Special invited guests are New Day For Children, Marin County DA, Wisdom International.

Marin Republican Women, Federated

President's Report

Wow -What a Week!!!

Monday 2/4/20: Iowa Caucuses. What a great way to start the week for a Republican! The party that wants to manage our healthcare, college debt, energy policies, and just about everything else, cannot manage to count votes in one state. How very embarrassing!

Tuesday 2/5/20: The State of the Union Address. Best ever. A phenomenal speech during which President Trump presented the best of American character, compassion and values. Then the Democrats sat and Nancy squirmed, pouted and ripped up the speech. How very shameful!

Wednesday 2/6/20: Impeachment Acquittal. President Trump was acquitted of two frivolous, desperate articles of impeachment. After three years of trying to get him and weeks of wasting valuable House and Senate time, the Democrats did not even come close. How very just!

Thursday 2/7/20: 225,000 new jobs announced. As the Democrats keep telling us how terrible the economy really is, the job numbers again pummeled the consensus estimate of 160,000. How very encouraging!

Friday 2/8/20: CFRW Winter Conference in San Diego. Jane Mauschardt attended and the week just got better. Met the leadership at the Friday Board meeting and then joined women from 120 clubs for an evening bay cruise. Best part was seeing 100+ 25 year olds disguised as fabulous 40, 50, 60, 70, and 80+ year old women dancing up a storm. How very uplifting!

Saturday 2/9/20: Great presentations and wonderful speakers. Darrel Issa spoke about impeachment with a funny focus on Crazy Maxine. Grammy award winning Joy Villa, singer, speaker, and sequined Trump lover, was our afternoon entertainment. Bernard Kerick, NY Police Commissioner and right hand man to Mayor Giuliani during 9/11, was our dinner speaker. How very inspirational!

Sunday 2/10/20: Leadership workshops. A chance for training and meeting with other presidents in smaller gatherings. A late morning departure for lots of new like-minded friends. How very wonderful to be a Republican woman!

Jane Maushardt and Kathryn Thompson, Co-Presidents

Membership Matters

We would like to welcome our new regular 2020 members Eva Benard, Lisa Dierking, Patricia McEntee, Kenzi Stingley, and Elizabeth Nogueiro. Thank you for supporting us, and we look forward to seeing you at our luncheons and Satellite evening events in 2020. Please tell and bring along and encourage other like-minded friends! I feel as though the momentum is shifting, and there are many more people than we think that are coming over to the Red side! This is an exciting year with the election coming up and the Democratic party imploding. We have a chance to really increase our membership and inspire people to get involved. Jessica is receiving checks daily and I thank you all for that. If you have not yet updated your membership dues, please do so ASAP. It makes housekeeping easier, and we are getting ready to start assembling data to print the new membership directory for 2020. Jessica and I will accept dues payments at the luncheons as well.

Remember that our regular membership dues have increased slightly this year to $40 and our associate dues have stayed the same at $25. Associate members are women who belong to another Republican Women Federated Club, Republican men, and non-citizens. We are always looking for and welcoming new members, so please bring family and friends as guests to our luncheons.

We continue the New Member contest for the 2020 year. The member who introduces the most new women to the club and they join as regular members could be the winner and

2020 State of the Union Speech

Here is President Trump's rousing finale and tribute (in part):

Our ancestors built the most exceptional Republic ever to exist in all of human history. This is our glorious and magnificent inheritance. We settled the new world, we built the modern world, and we changed history forever by embracing the eternal truth that everyone is made equal by the hand of Almighty God.

Community Projects Reports

Your helping hands and talents are needed for all the MRWF activities. Get on the lists; call the project chair listed.

VETERANS

The San Francisco VA Hospital is happily accepting books, DVDs, and new lap blankets, socks, shoes, and other clothing, especially warm stuff. The hospital no longer accepts used clothing.

The Veterans Home in Yountville seeks playing cards, puzzles, puzzle books, handkerchiefs, ball caps, and non-perishable snack foods like chips, soup cups, Vienna sausages, candy, and popcorn.

Both facilities can always use stamps and stationery.

Donations can be brought to any of our meetings and are tax deductible if you include your name and address with the items. Pick-ups outside of meetings can also be arranged. Questions? Please call Anne at 415-302-0330.

Anne Brenneis, Veterans Project Chair

Election Day - Tuesday March 3rd

Marin Election Countdown

- Feb 3rd Early Voting starts in the Registrar's Office at Marin Civic Center.
- Feb 18th Last day to register to vote except . . .
- Feb 18th Conditional registration and voting at Registrar's office begins. Voters can Register and then obtain Conditional Ballot and vote the same day at the Registrar's office from now through Election Day.

VOTER REGISTRATION

MRWF held our Voter Registration at The Village Mall on February 1 and February 8, 2020. Thanks go to my first team on February 1: Kathryn and Peter Thompson, Kenzi Stingley, Jane Maushardt and her dog and our mascot of the day, Tess. I also wish to thank my February 8 team: Patti McGeehon, Augustine Morello, and Bonnie Stevens and Lexi, her dog and our mascot of the day.

We had many people stop and praise us for our bravery and for our service. We had many questions about Party Preference Voting. We had three voter registration forms turned in; 2 Republicans and 1 Libertarian. We had 46 thumbs-up and 10 thumbs-down votes from the Marin citizens who stopped at our registration table. Our discussions ranged from "I'm voting for Bernie" to "I can't wait for four more years and cleaning up the swamp!"

Our next Voter Registration effort will be in September 2020 before the General Election. Contact me to get on my list of volunteers. My email is acfenstermaker@comcast.net

Arlene Fenstermaker, Voter Registration Chair

MRWF SATELLITE CLUB

We hope that you are getting ready for another election of President Trump! Many thanks to Faye Bourret and her husband Bruce Bernott for hosting the February event at their home, and for their generosity in sharing. This election season in California (that's us) our big task is to get Republican Congressmen elected. Take back our California Republican districts That means give money to candidates and make phone calls for their campaigns.

Please join us for our next Satellite Club gathering on Friday, March 20, the 3rd Friday of the month. We will be meeting at the home of Kathryn and Peter Thompson in Novato. Please bring a dish to share, the beverage of your choice . . . and friends/family!

Celia Shaw, Satellite Club Chair

News - National Internet

Trump's Supporters Are Not Cult Members. We're Americans Date: 2/10/2020

By Sally Zelikovsky in American Thinker (Excerpted)

Read the entire article here:

www.americanthinker.com/articles/2020/02/trumps\_supporters\_are\_not\_cult\_members\_were\_americans.html#ixzz6EAWg3IRe

Former one-term Republican congressman and radio host Joe Walsh recently withdrew from running against Trump in the Republican primary. He apparently got the message that his candidacy was dead. . .

Any birdbrain knows that Trump makes every day about us and the U.S. The only reason he has had to talk about himself is because he's been under constant attack, and Democrats demanded his head. Past Republican presidents likely would not have responded, concluding that it was beneath the dignity of the office. Perhaps. But at some point, you have to fight back, or you'll eventually be ousted. When they called George Bush a liar and accused him of starting a war for oil we never got but would somehow benefit him, he just took it and virtually disappeared. When you don't present your case forcefully, the accusations become the truth, no matter how false.

Democrats got used to bullying Republicans, and Republicans forgot how to stand up for themselves. That all changed when Trump seismically disrupted the status quo, and Democrats and establishment Republicans went nuts. Democrats lost their stronghold over Republicans, and the Republican establishment didn't know what hit them: they couldn't control someone who burned their playbook and didn't care about perceptions.

Walsh labeled Trump a "dictator" and "king" and said he withdrew from the race because the Republican party had become an unbeatable cult of Trump. Walsh couldn't be more wrong. Cultists follow their leaders with blind faith and, like automatons, comport themselves exactly how the cult leader instructs them. Trump, on the contrary, is doing what we want him to do — what we've wanted every Republican president, presidential candidate, and congressperson to do for decades.

Marin Republican Women, Federated

That's not a cult; it's literally the definition of a Democratic Republic — we vote for representatives to do what we want them to do. If they don't, we vote for others who will. We are not blindly following a manifesto that Trump drafted in the bowels of his basement, but abiding by a Constitution that has withstood the test of time. Our "Kool-Aid" is the relatively benign patriotism and flag-waving that have been a staple of the American ethos.

The intolerance and hate, of which we are daily accused, oozes from the pores of most left-wingers. They call us the most loathsome of names and marginalize us, and we are told to make nice. They try to destroy our president, accuse him of treason, impeach and remove him, tear this country in half for three years, ridicule his supporters, and then we are told to turn the other cheek, call for unity, and move forward. Sometimes.

Other times you have to call people out for what they have done and demand accountability. Trump deftly demonstrated this as they escorted Lt. Col. Vindman out of the White House and recalled that colossal boobenheimer Sondland.

Democrats don't want unity or collaboration. Their messaging post-SOTU and post-acquittal has been It's not over yet, my pretty. Meanwhile, they shredded the Constitution, denying the accused president any due process, and literally shredded the SOTU speech, then promised to continue to investigate, "do oversight," and impeach over and over until they destroy the country, the president, or both. They can't win 2020 on merit, so they have to win with chaos.

When another choice emerged (and it could have been anyone, but this time it was Trump) who understood us, understood we'd been shafted and shivved, it didn't matter if he was a smooth talker, a great rhetorician, an experienced politician, or even groomed in the manner we'd become accustomed to.

Trump's entire appeal was I get you, I see what's happened, I see what you want, and I will fight to get you that. I will not be bullied or pushed into compromises for the sake of compromise unless it directly benefits you. . . .

So we went with Trump, with our eyes wide open. We see clearly who he is and how he lived his life and, so far, how he has fought for us. That doesn't make us cultists. It just means we are discerning voters.

In a way, I think we have made Trump a better man — a man maybe he never realized he could be. Meanwhile, guys like Joe Walsh and Mitt Romney and their newfound pals Bernie Sanders and Adam Schiff will be relics of the past, residing on the ash heap of history...with the rest of the dirtbags.
